

NATIONAL GARDEN DAY SCAVENGER HUNT RIDDLES

1. The ribbon will be cut, the crowd will shout HOORAY! the veggies will now grow as it is officially open TODAY!
2. Who is this community group that celebrated their opening ceremony today? Track down an Executive Member and take a selfie with them and say HEY! *HINT They will be wearing Year of the Garden T-Shirts!
3. Our boat elevator is quite a big deal but how does it work? Take a selfie with that wheel!
4. It slept all Winter long, getting ready to grow. How many more rocks will be added? One just does not KNOW!
5. From an old cement wall to a fresh coat of paint, our watercraft throughout history is more colourful than you might think
6. Our Municipality's name is carved in stone. Good thing this rock is solid and doesn't take a roll!
7. Apple blossoms now bloom, horseshoes were once thrown. It's a greenspace where the swans like to hang out this is known
8. I get sand between my toes when I sit with it, in the heat you can hear kid's laughter. How lucky we are to have it, it's the best around, it can't be BEAT!
9. Explore the map, discover the trail, this kiosk guides your journey on Canada's largest network of recreational trails
10. I mark the boundaries of this Municipality at everyway in! Sometimes I am blue and sometimes I am green and sometimes I even have numbers to mark the residents who live in between! What am I?

BONUS

I am a type of building and from the top I shine, I warn the sailors about rocks so that ships will be fine, I've been away for a little while. I was being rebuilt and have been floated out to where I will now spend my days! Rocking and a rolling with each of the waves!
